

The Curry Family, Plainfield and New Brunswick, New Jersey

February 8th 1993

Dean Mildred:

Was very glad to hear from you, I am sorry to hear that you are not interested in the family relationship. You did a wonderful job filling out the questionnaire, one of the best we gotten so far. You are right, there are a lot of Thomas's in this family, to be exact there are 19 Thomas's in this family from 1800 to 1993.

I am sorry you are not feeling good these days, but hang in there, I will say a few prayers for to St. Jude, he always helps me out. I hope you boys will fill out the questionnaires and send them back, We do not have very many persons on your side of the family compared to the New Brunswick Curry's and I would like to have good representation from the Plainfield Curry's

Sean Curry (Bucky's grandson) and I went to visit Susan Curry Kress a few days ago, She is a lovely person, we also met her brother Edward, The both are very interested in the book and ordered one each. We have also been in touch with Kathy Curry Santye, Your brother Charles's daughter, She is also very interested in the book. I have been writing to Dan Gough, (Dorothy's son) He lived in Greenville South Carolina, He has been a big help to us with his family.

Your side of the Curry family is sure spread out, with some living in California, Oregon, Utah, South Carolina, Tennessee. On my side we only have a few who live out of New Jersey. But I have fun writing to all of them, and some I correspond with through my computer, in a program called Prodigy, I write to Dan Gough all the time this way. Dan is going to Ireland at the end of February, He is going to try and find some information on Thomas Curry your great-grandfather, my great-great-grandfather. and his great-great-grandfather.

Mildred I want to thank you for all your help, for without you we would have never been able to connect the two Curry families. We have now found out who the other Thomas and Charles cousins you told me about came from. they are the son of your father's younger brother Thomas F. Curry. He had three children Thomas, Charles, and Mabel. Your father had one sister, Louise, who married a man by the name of Henry Diehl, he died and she married a man by the name of Lawsan. They are all buried in the same grave plot in St. Raymonds Cemetery, in the Bronx. We have verified this through the Cemetery. I will have Sean make up a descendents chart for you so you can see how everyone fits into the picture.

Well, Mildred, I better be closing for now, maybe I will be down your way again sometime in the neat future, and if so I will look you up. If you should be in the New Brunswick area again please give me a call 908-545-9035, I would be very glad to see or hear from you.

Love
